

JOHN PEHRSON

John Pehrson is currently Secretary and Treasurer of the Interstellar Community Foundation, an organization established for the purpose of creating a cradle to grave educational system that makes use of a specially designed campus and series of buildings surrounded by sustainable "communities of the future" for the purpose of maximizing and sustaining the highest human potential, and ultimately influencing the development of global culture.

He has a degree in Chemical Engineering from Iowa State University (1972).

He is a former executive with the DuPont Corporation with whom he worked from 1972 – 1992.

He served on the Board of Directors for the Open Center in New York City in 1991-1992, an organization founded in 1984 to offer holistically-based educational programs to create positive transformation in individual and the world.

He was President of Creative Change Technologies, LLC, from 1993 – 1998, a sales training and management consulting company.

He is an Ordained Minister and Director with the Universal Brotherhood Movement (1993 – present).

From 1995 – 2015, John traveled the world as a trainer and coach dedicated to helping people live inspired lives with greater awareness and understanding. This work has been with both individuals and groups, with efforts focused in three areas: 1) helping groups to resolve conflicts and experience "community," a deep sense of self-awareness, connectedness and authenticity; each effort designed to move the world toward greater awareness and, over time, global peace; 2) teaching people to use their inner guidance to achieve greater personal power and freedom; 3) facilitating personal and group healing through the power of sacred sound, dance and dialogue.

A biography of this work by John Pehrson and his wife Jeanne White Eagle Pehrson, Journey for the One, was written by Monty Joynes and released in 2009.

For more than 30 years, John's workshops and seminars have guided organizations, promoting cooperation, understanding and creativity in multicultural environments.

He is one of the foremost teachers on applied intuition in the workplace, and is co-author of two books in the field: Intuitive Imagery: A Resource at Work (1997), and Intuition at Work: Pathways to Unlimited Possibilities (1996). He is also co-author of Community Building: Renewing Spirit and Learning in Business (1996).

He is the creator of a new 13-month calendar and a new system of Mystical Numerology, a synthesis of Native American, Mayan and western knowledge that was more than 20-years in the making. He is author of the book, Mystical Numerology: The Creative Power of Sound and Numbers (2013). See his website for more information: www.mysticalnumerologyonline.com
